1. SMA for the Schwerin - Wismar - Stralsund area has its headquarters at Schwerin.

2. Each town or district area is styled a "Kommando" and is headed by a Colonel with six to eight Majors attached. These Majors are heads of various departments (Harbor Dept., Trade Dept., Political Dept., Information Dept.), and each Major has eight to ten Captains under him.

3. The organization is loose, and there is a remarkable independence of action among the various districts and among departments of the same district.

4. Wismar, a town of about 44,000, is a District headquarters under a Colonel Kuminchev. His headquarters are in the Treasurer's Office in Wismar.

5. The senior Soviet officer of the district responsible for the dismantling and removal to the USSR of German industry is at Stralsund.
